The Board of ITV plc are responsible for governance and oversight across the ITV Group and the duties under Section 172(1) of the Companies Act 2006 ('s172') in respect of ITV plc. As ITV Rights Limited (the 'Company') is part of the ITV Group, its directors (the "Directors") believe that certain matters they are responsible for under s172 in respect of the Company have been considered to an appropriate extent by the Board of ITV plc in relation both to the ITV Group and the Company and reference to this is made below.

- The long term: The Directors are fully cognisant of the evolving competitor and viewer landscape in which the Company operates and the main focus during the year has been the Company's role in the Group strategy to transform the Broadcast business and in particular its role in supercharging ITV's streaming strategy, including the launch of its new ITVX platform. They have considered both the opportunities and challenges of structural change on the Company's programme supply obligations to the Channel 3 licensees not owned by ITV, and how they can continue to drive mass audiences that remain highly valuable to advertisers.
- Employees: The Company does not have any employees.
- Business relationships - suppliers, customers: The Directors are committed to fostering good working business relationships with their key stakeholders which include suppliers, other broadcasters, legislators and regulators. The Directors recognise that an understanding of the issues relating to these stakeholders is fundamental to building and maintaining successful relationships, enabling the Company to take advantage of the strong and mutually beneficial opportunities needed to ensure the success of the Company. As the Company is fully embedded within the ITV Group governance structure, the Directors seek to align themselves with ITV plc's engagement mechanisms and an explanation of how the Directors of ITV plc have had regard to the need to foster the Company's business relationships in the context of the significant financial and economic uncertainty caused by COVID-19 and Brexit are set out on pages 107 to 112 of ITV plc's 2021 annual report which does not form a part of this report, with detail on suppliers and other broadcasters on page 109, legislators and regulators on page 110.
